Steps to apply for a change of immigration status while in the United States

Step I. WRITE A COVER LETTER.

The letter should:

- Explain what you are applying for (i.e. change from F-1 to F-2)
- Explain why you are applying
- List all of the contents of your envelope

Step II. READ INSTRUCTIONS & COMPLETE I-539 FORM (May be downloaded from USCIS website or obtained from the International Programs Center)

Complete all questions and attach all required documents

Step III. INCLUDE WITH THE LETTER OF EXPLANATION & THE I-539 THE FOLLOWING ITEMS

- Copy of your I-94 (Front & Back)
- Copy of latest visa
- Copy of passport
- Original documents necessary for the new status (e.g. all pages I-20 or DS-2019 if changing to a student or dependent F or J visa)
- Current proof of finances to support you in the new status
- $300 check made payable to "U.S. Department of Homeland Security"
- A receipt for the SEVIS I-109 Fee. Effective September 1, 2004, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) now requires the collection of one-time SEVIS I-901 FEE of $200 from F-1 students. An F-1 student must remit the fee directly to DHS by completing form SEVIS I-901 electronically using the internet or by mail. You must pay the SEVIS I-901 fee before filing your application for change of status. While USCIS will be able to electronically verify your payment, we recommend that you send a copy of the receipt for your SEVIS I-901 fee payment with your application. Therefore, it is best to file your application for a change of status after you have a SEVIS I-901 fee receipt.

Note that if you are applying for a change to or from a dependent status (F2/J2), then you will also need to include copies of:

- Primary’s (spouse or parent) I-94 card (front and back)
- Primary’s visa (spouse or parent)
- Primary’s passport (spouse or parent)
- If applying as a spouse, provide marriage certificate with certified English translation
- If applying as a child, provide birth certificate with certified English translation
