4. Place to stay for temporary accommodations:
The Ramada Inn and The Battleground Inn are a short drive from the university. Costs will be paid by the participant. Students should call/fax the inn directly for reservations. Make sure you identify yourself as an international student studying at UNCG. Students also should call IPC as soon as possible to arrange pick-up and transportation to campus.

Please make sure that you say that you are a UNCG INTERNATIONAL STUDENT!

5. Getting to Greensboro, North Carolina

You can fly to the Greensboro airport: Piedmont-Triad International Airport, Greensboro, North Carolina. From the airport, Greensboro/UNCG is ten miles away. A 15-20 minute cab ride costs approximately $18-24.

All exchange students may be met and greeted by a staff member at the airport provided The International Programs Center is advised of your arrival schedule (airline, flight number and arrival time) at least two weeks in advance and provided arrival is before 10:00 p.m. (including flight delays). IPC will also arrange pick-up for you by a local taxi/limousine company. After 10:00 p.m., we can not assure that you will be met and greeted by a staff member, but IPC will make every effort to arrange pick-up by the taxi/limousine company, provided we know your arrival time in advance. If you arrive late and are not met at the airport, you should take a taxi to your lodging. Please email IPC at studyabroad@uncg.edu indicating the following information: your name, complete arrival information including flight number (or train or bus information), date and time of arrival and the hotel where you have made a reservation.

Greensboro is also served by Amtrak trains (http://www.amtrak.com) from all points north and south.

6. Orientation Program.

The Fall 2008 Orientation for all international exchange students takes place beginning on Tuesday, August 19, 2008 (for the Spring Semester, Wednesday, January 14, 2009.) Please try to arrive no later than the previous day in Greensboro. (See arrival in paragraph 2.)

You will participate in university orientation activities for all international students, with special orientation programs and events for exchange students. Various activities will be scheduled at UNCG and in the community including tours, shopping trips, a lake trip and parties.

7. Housing and Meal Benefits During Academic Sessions

You will receive housing benefits and the equivalent of 19 meals per week for the full period of the exchange. For provision of benefits during vacation periods, see Paragraph #8.
Benefits - Housing
Type of housing provided: Shared-Residence hall room (exc. Tower Village or Spring Garden Apartments)
How many students share a room or apartment? TWO
How many students share bathroom facilities? TEN
Are cooking facilities provided? No (minimal) exception: Tower Village
Are bed linens provided? No
Are blankets provided? No
Are towels provided? No
Are laundry facilities available? Yes
How far is housing from institution? Located on campus

As an exchange student, you are NOT required to send a housing deposit for accommodations.

Note regarding single room accommodations: single rooms are generally not available at UNCG with the exception of Tower Village (as-available). Exchange students interested in living in Tower Village or Spring Garden Apartments may need to pay supplementary charges for rent and food (approximately $200-$250 per month plus some grocery expenses.)

Note: Housing contracts are for the full year or semester (if that is the duration of your exchange). You will sign a full-year or semester contract and must petition to be released from that contract.

Married, Co-ed or family rooms are not available. Co-habitation is considered a violation of the housing contract.

Benefits - Meals
You will have many meal plan options (subject to change):

Cafeteria meals are "all you can eat". Declining balance options mean students will receive debit cards which can be used at food service concessions across campus such as Java Cafè, fast food, salad bar, university restaurants, etc.

8. Housing and Meal Benefits during Vacation Periods

Housing: If you do not travel during vacation periods, you can either stay in your own residence hall room or if this is not possible you will be offered alternative residence accommodations.

Meals: You will receive a meal stipend (approx. $20 per day) to cover meals over vacation and holiday periods.

9. Estimated personal expenses:
You should probably budget a minimum of $150 - $300 per month for miscellaneous costs such as local travel, entertainment, supplies etc.
Insurance: about $350 per semester--(UNCG health insurance is mandatory and you will be billed upon arrival.)
Books: you should budget between $200 - $450 per semester. Actual cost depends upon classes taken.

10. Medical Requirement/Health Services
In this packet you have received a memo entitled “Student Medical Form” with instructions concerning your medical forms. You should now follow the instructions on that sheet. It is far less expensive for you to have your forms completed at home than to do it once you arrive.

Important: You should bring copies of vaccination records. If you have insufficient evidence of proper inoculations, you may receive these upon your arrival at your own expense. Most vaccinations cost between $10 and $20.

There is a full-service university infirmary on campus providing medical services. There is also a counseling center with counselors and psychologists on staff.

Insurance

U.S. Government regulations require you to have sufficient medical insurance coverage to participate on an exchange to the United States. Accordingly, insurance coverage through a UNCG-approved plan is mandatory and you will be billed through your student account upon your arrival. The UNCG insurance plan costs about Approximately: $350 per semester in 2004-2005. For more information on the policy, see the following web site: http://www.uncg.edu/ipg/studyabroad/jinsuranceinfo.html (NB: ISEP participants pay their insurance through ISEP).

11. Miscellaneous:

Transportation: Like many U.S. cities, Greensboro does not have an extensive public transportation system (there is limited bus service). Greensboro is an automobile town, with most students getting around by car. Some international students choose to buy an older car to get around during their studies at UNCG.

Employment: Exchange students are eligible to work on-campus up to 20 hours per week when classes are in session; 40 hours per week during holiday periods. More detailed information about on-campus employment will be discussed at orientation.
