We at International Programs Center (IPC) welcome you to a new year and new academic semester! This special issue includes important spring deadlines and scheduled events. We are looking forward to another great semester as we help students and faculty enhance their academic and life experience by exploring the world around them.

Important Upcoming Funding Deadlines

KOHLER FUND & GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT QEP COURSE DEVELOPMENT AWARD
The deadlines to apply for a Kohler grant as well as the Global Engagement QEP Course Development Awards for this academic year are January 16 and March 20. There are seven Kohler grant categories, but before submitting a proposal, you must consult with Associate Provost Dr. Nell Pynes, of International Programs. The QEP Course Development Awards are for faculty to modify existing courses or create new courses that address at least one of the four Global Engagement Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) at the 300-, 400-, or 500- level. Applications for the Kohler grant can be found at: www.uncg.edu/ipg/kohlerapplication.docx
Applications for the Global Engagement QEP Course Development Awards can be found at: www.uncg.edu/ipg/qepcdapplication.docx

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL FUND (ITF)
ITF supports ca. 50 UNCG faculty members per year to present their work at international conferences outside North America. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and processed typically within two weeks of receipt. Faculty may apply once per year every two out of three years. Details about the application process can be found at: www.uncg.edu/ipg/itfapplication.docx

OFFICE OF LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE-LEARNING GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT AWARDS
UNCG’s Office of Leadership and Service-Learning (OLSL) will provide curriculum development opportunities to faculty who have interest in leading a student trip to another country. The award must result in an undergraduate course for academic credit that includes an international community service component. Deadline for a summer exploratory trip is March 16, 2015. Applications and information can be found at: www.olsl.uncg.edu/wp-content/uploads/InternationalSVLCourseGrant2015.pdf
