Welcome to the New Year! We at the International Programs Center (IPC) would like to take this opportunity to share some of this semester’s upcoming deadlines and scheduled events. We are looking forward to another great semester of all things international. See you soon!

In case you missed any of our Fall 2013 editions, they can be found here: http://uncg.edu/ipg/enewsworthy.html

Important Upcoming Deadlines

- Faculty Funding: Kohler and ITF grants

  The deadlines to apply for a Kohler grant in the Spring 2014 semester are January 17 and March 21.

  A portion of the Kohler Fund is dedicated to supporting faculty internationalization efforts. Faculty are encouraged to submit proposals by the deadline that falls approximately six weeks before the proposed event or travel. Details about the application procedure and the forms needed can be found at http://www.uncg.edu/ipg/fundingopportunities. We look forward to receiving and reviewing your proposals.

  The International Travel Fund (ITF) supports ca. 50 UNCG faculty members per year to present their work at international conferences outside North America. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and processed typically within two weeks of receipt. Faculty may apply once per year every two out of three years. Details about applying can be found at http://www.uncg.edu/ipg/travelfunds.html.

- Intercultural Sensitivity Workshop: Looking Through Other Eyes

  The Global Engagement Learning Community is offering this workshop on January 22, 2014, from 2:00-3:30pm in McIver 140 for UNCG faculty to experience the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) and learn more about Milton Bennett’s Developmental Model of Intercultural Sensitivity (DMIS). This workshop is open to all faculty interested in incorporating intercultural competency into their curriculum and/or their daily professional and personal lives. Spaces are limited; if interested, please contact FTLC@uncg.edu and apply by January 17.

We invite you to attend the Chancellor’s International Welcome Reception Spring 2014 for new and returning international students as well as UNCG students who have returned from study abroad programs in recent months. Please come out and let these students know how much they are appreciated and welcomed at UNCG. Light refreshments will be provided.

Attention Global Leadership Program (GLP) members! Mark your calendars for the Spring 2014 Core Colloquia. Please RSVP to glp@uncg.edu if you plan to attend. Pizza will be provided.

The GLP offers students who are interested in international and global societies and issues an opportunity to hone the range of skills necessary to develop as global leaders.

Interested in learning more about the GLP? Please contact Katie Pegram, the program coordinator, at glp@uncg.edu for more information about enrolling.
